

How I use:

UNIVERSAL LEARNING DESIGN

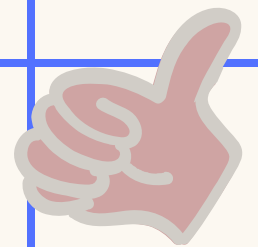

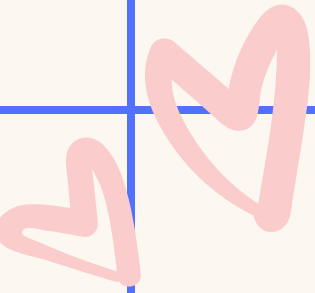

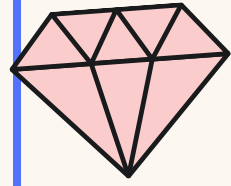

A pink window with a title bar and window controls (minimize, maximize, close) in the top right corner. The window contains the following text:

#1:

INCREASED FONT SIZE

Aids students with decreased vision and allows everyone to see questions more clearly.

The window also features several white starburst icons: one in the top left, one in the bottom left, and one in the bottom right.

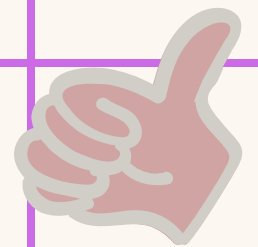

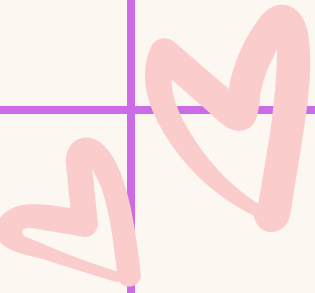

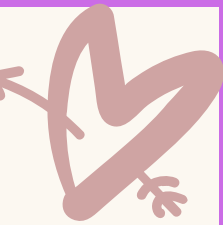

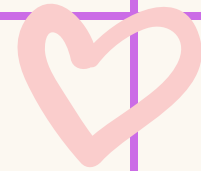

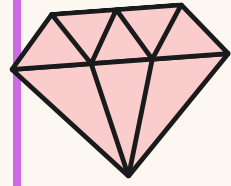

A pink rectangular box with a dark pink title bar at the top. The title bar contains three window control icons: a minimize icon (a horizontal line), a maximize icon (a square), and a close icon (an 'X'). The main area of the box is light pink and contains text and decorative elements.

#2:

REDUCED TEXT

Decreases confusion while reading questions.

Several white, four-pointed starburst sparkles are scattered around the text within the pink box.

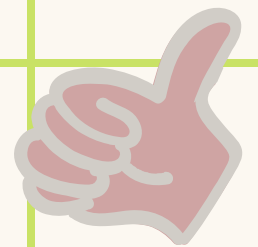

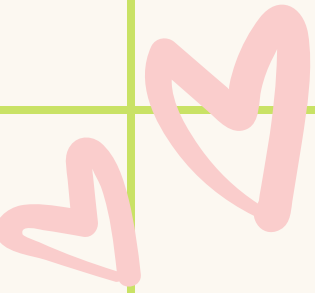

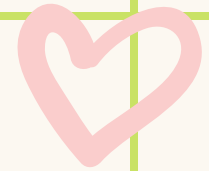

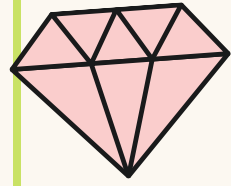

A pink window frame with a dark pink header bar containing three window control icons (minimize, maximize, close). The main content area is pink and contains the following text and graphics:

#3:

BODY BREAKS

Providing pre-planned body breaks in activities to help students with wiggly bodies.

Decorative elements include a large yellow starburst in the top left, a smaller yellow starburst in the bottom right, and a small yellow starburst in the bottom left corner of the window.

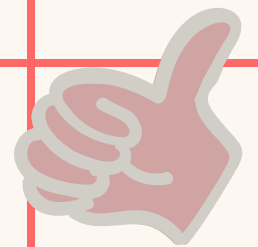

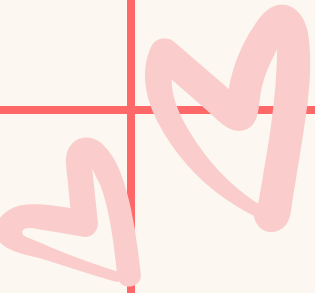

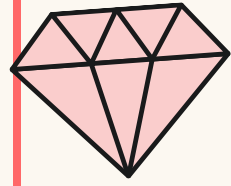

A window frame with a pink background and a dark pink title bar. The title bar contains three window control icons: minimize, maximize, and close. The main content area of the window is pink and contains the following text:

#4:

VISUAL AIDS

Providing media and images to assist in teaching new concepts.

The window also features several white starburst graphics: two in the top-left corner, one in the bottom-left corner, and one in the bottom-right corner.

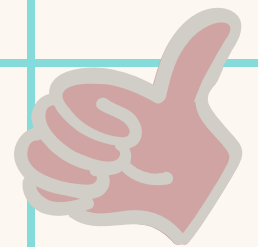

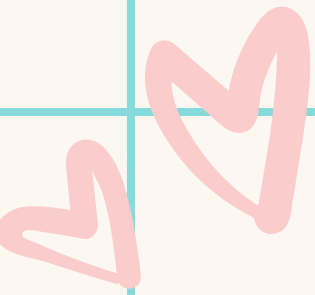

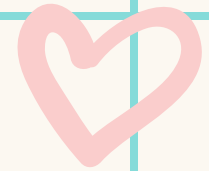

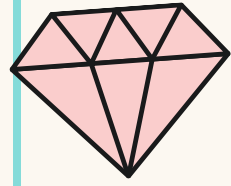

A window frame with a pink background and a dark pink title bar. The title bar contains three window control icons: a minus sign, a maximize button, and a close button. The main content area of the window features a large pink oval containing the text "#5:". Below this, the word "CHOICES" is written in a large, bold, white, outlined font. Underneath "CHOICES", the text "Allowing student choice in how they present their understanding." is displayed in a smaller, black, sans-serif font. The window is decorated with several white starburst icons: two in the top left, one in the bottom left, and one in the bottom right.

#5:

CHOICES

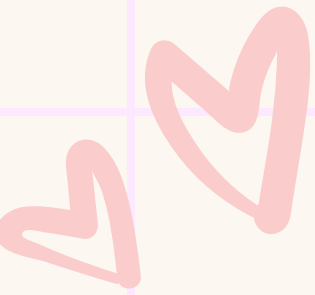

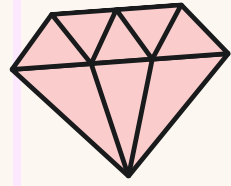

Allowing student choice in how they present their understanding.

#6:

FLEXIBLE WORK SPACES

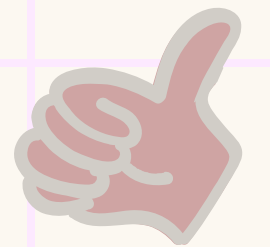

Allowing student choice in how they work in the classroom.

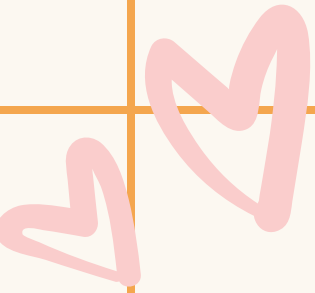

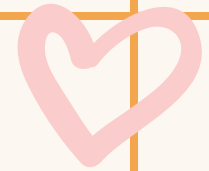

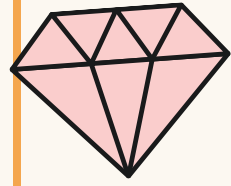

A window frame with a dark red header bar containing three window control icons (minimize, maximize, close). The main content area is light red and contains the following text and graphics:

#7:

WORD BANKS

Allowing students word banks with key vocabulary to help with time management.

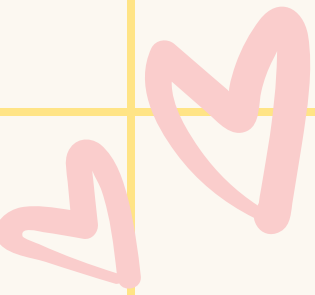

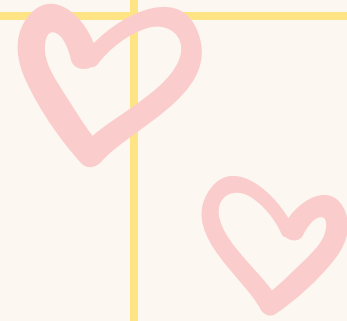

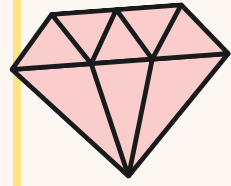

Decorative elements include a large yellow starburst in the top left, a smaller yellow starburst in the bottom right, and a small yellow starburst in the bottom left corner of the window.

A pink window frame with a title bar at the top containing three window control icons (minimize, maximize, close) and a vertical scroll bar on the right side.

#8:

RUBRIC'S

Ease anxiety by telling students what you are looking for.

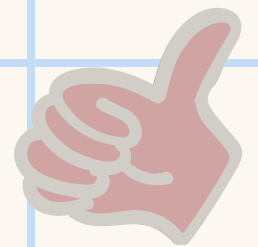

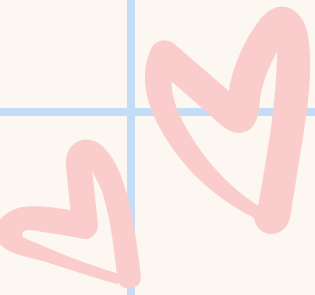

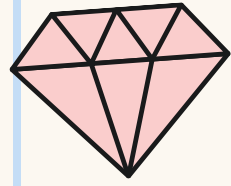

A pink window frame with a title bar at the top containing three window control icons (minimize, maximize, close) and a vertical scroll bar on the right side.

#9:

GRADUAL RELEASE OF RESPONSIBILITY

Set up all students for success by working towards gradual independence.

A pink starburst icon with a black outline, positioned in the top left corner of the window frame.

A pink rectangular window with a dark pink title bar at the top. The title bar contains three window control icons: a minus sign, a square, and an 'X'. The window has rounded corners and a white scrollbar on the right side. The background of the window is a light pink color with several white starburst icons scattered around the text.

#10:

ROUTINE

Set up and follow a strict routine so all students can anticipate what each day will look like.